2. UNDERWRITING

Moratorium underwriting is offered. Pre-existing conditions are excluded from cover under a moratorium (delay period). A pre-existing condition is any known medical condition (or related condition) that has, in the two years immediately before the insured persons enrolment date, or the enrolment date of a dependant, one or more of the following characteristics:

- it has been diagnosed.
- it has needed medical treatment (including drugs, special diets and injections).
- medical advice has been asked for, including check-ups.
- medical advice should have been asked for if recognised clinical advice had been followed.
- it has undiagnosed symptoms, whether recognised or not.

After two years of continuous cover pre-existing conditions will become eligible for benefit (unless the condition or the benefit is specifically excluded) if, at the first time of receiving treatment, the insured person has not:

- suffered any symptoms;
- consulted any physician for check-ups, medical treatment or advice;
- taken any medication including drugs, special diets, injections, physiotherapy for that medical condition, or any related condition, for a continuous period of two years.

Medical History disregarded means that any pre-existing medical conditions will be covered providing that all material circumstances, including but not limited to any planned/pending inpatient treatment or serious medical condition, have been disclosed to and accepted by the Insurer and they fall within the terms and conditions of the plan (where MHD underwriting is offered to your sponsoring organisation by Expacare). MHD is subject to acceptance of completed relevant forms and submission of full membership.

9. DUTY OF FAIR PRESENTATION

We wish to remind clients of their duty of fair presentation. The duty on insureds and potential insureds is one of fair presentation of the risk, which requires:

- disclosure of every material circumstance which the insured knows or ought to know, or
- failing that, disclosure which gives the Insurer sufficient information to put a prudent insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries for the purposes of revealing those material circumstances, in a manner which would be reasonably clear and accessible to a prudent insurer. A material circumstance is one which would influence the judgment of a prudent insurer in determining whether to take the risk and, if so, on what terms.

You must satisfy yourself as to the accuracy and completeness of the information you provide to insurers. This will still apply where any amendment is made to the insurance.

If you breach your duty of fair presentation, Insurers are generally limited to "proportionate remedies", linked to what they would have done if the risk had been fairly presented. This may result in the imposition of different terms, or the proportionate reduction of claims where a higher premium would have been charged. In circumstances where Insurers would not have entered into the contract on any terms it can avoid the contract and refuse all claims, but must return the premium. If the breach is deliberate or reckless Insurers can avoid the policy, refuse all claims and keep the premium.

Please refer to our Membership Guide, in particular the Section headed 'Duty of Fair Presentation', for more information.
