9. DUTY OF FAIR PRESENTATION

We wish to remind clients of their duty of fair presentation. The duty on insureds and potential insureds is one of fair presentation of the risk, which requires:

- disclosure of every material circumstance which the insured knows or ought to know, or
- failing that, disclosure which gives the Insurer sufficient information to put a prudent insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries for the purposes of revealing those material circumstances, in a manner which would be reasonably clear and accessible to a prudent insurer. A material circumstance is one which would influence the judgment of a prudent insurer in determining whether to take the risk and, if so, on what terms.

You must satisfy yourself as to the accuracy and completeness of the information you provide to insurers. This will still apply where any amendment is made to the insurance.

If you breach your duty of fair presentation, Insurers are generally limited to "proportionate remedies", linked to what they would have done if the risk had been fairly presented. This may result in the imposition of different terms, or the proportionate reduction of claims where a higher premium would have been charged. In circumstances where Insurers would not have entered into the contract on any terms it can avoid the contract and refuse all claims, but must return the premium. If the breach is deliberate or reckless Insurers can avoid the policy, refuse all claims and keep the premium.

Please refer to our Membership Guide, in particular the Section headed 'Duty of Fair Presentation', for more information.
